

Weill-Lenya Research Center

Series 14
Sheet Music of Kurt Weill

<23> folders (<ca. 1.0> linear ft.).

Contents: Printed music in popular arrangements, mostly with illustrated covers. Weill's best-known German and American shows are well-represented. For some shows (e.g., Die Dreigroschenoper), there are several printings of the same numbers from different decades. Lesser-known shows are represented as well, such as two numbers from A Kingdom for a Cow, four numbers from Firebrand of Florence, one number from Railroads on Parade, one number from the film You and Me. Some songs that did not originate in larger works are also represented. Includes translations and certain arrangements.

Arrangement: Folders filed alphabetically by uniform title. Each folder represents one show or independently composed song (e.g., Berlin im Licht); numbers are filed alphabetically by title within folders.

Texts in English, German, French, Italian, etc..

Originals and photocopies.

From various sources; donated or purchased.
