

Finding Aids for Collections in the Weill-Lenya Research Center, Kurt Weill Foundation

Series 40 Weill Correspondence

Dates: 1920-1950 (bulk, 1935-1950)
Extent: ca. 600 items (ca. 1.25 linear ft.)
Last updated: June 8, 2012
Contact: wlrc@kwf.org

Arrangement: Alphabetical by correspondent, then chronological.
In English, German, and French; transcriptions available for most letters;
English translations available for some letters in other languages.

Provenance and Ownership: Most items in this series have been copied from other collections of correspondence held by repositories, dealers, or private individuals. In some cases, the WLRC does own original items, which are stored off-site, with reference photocopies available to researchers. Where possible, ownership of originals is noted by correspondent, or, if necessary, by item. The Kurt Weill Foundation owns the literary rights to Weill's unpublished writings, including correspondence. The rights of his correspondents are not, in general, owned or represented by the Foundation.

Contents: The collection documents Weill's written communication (in letters, postcards, telegrams, enclosures) with friends, associates, colleagues, publishers, etc. The following correspondents represent collections of substantial interest (number of items in parentheses): Maurice Abravanel, 1926-1944 (17); Theodor Adorno, 1928-1942 (4); Maxwell Anderson, 1937-1947 (14); ASCAP, 1939-1949 (19); Bertolt Brecht, 1928-1950 (18); Ferruccio Busoni, 1921-1924 (10); Cheryl Crawford, 1936-1944 (6); Hans Curjel, 1929-1934 (7); Marlene Dietrich, 1929-1936 (6); Ira Gershwin, 1940-1948 (28); Paul Green, 1936-1941 (27); Hans W. Heinsheimer, 1928-1949 (25); Heugel (firm), 1934-1937 (29); Franz Ludwig Hörrh, 1926-1927 (5); Langston Hughes, 1946-1950 (25); Caspar Neher, 1935-1947 (bulk, 1947) (10); Erika Neher, 1936-1946 (16); Ruth Page, 1941-1947 (12); Leah Salisbury, 1943-1950 (138); Sam and Bella Spewack, 1937-1938 (4); Theatre Guild, 1937-1950 (36).

Weill's correspondence with his family is held in Ser.30, Box 9, folders 1-11, Box 7, folders 1-20, and Series 45 and 46; his correspondence with Lotte Lenya in Ser.44. For his correspondence with Universal Edition, see Ser.41.

The Papers of Kurt Weill and Lotte Lenya (MSS 30) in the Yale University Music Library also contains a substantial collection of Weill's correspondence:

<http://webtext.library.yale.edu/xml2html/music/kw-d.htm>

The WLRC holds photocopies of all the correspondence at Yale. Smaller collections are held in repositories throughout the U.S. and Europe.

The collection is open, with further growth expected.

Restrictions: Letters written by Weill may be copied at the discretion of the WLRC, unless the originals belong to another repository. Ordinarily, letters written by others may not be copied without the permission of all rights holders.

Key: ALS = autograph (handwritten) letter, signed
AL = autograph (handwritten) letter
TLS = typed letter, signed
TL = typed letter (often a carbon copy of an outgoing letter)
APS = autograph (handwritten) postcard, signed
