

Weill-Lenya Research Center
Series 43
Lenya Personal Correspondence

<ca. 725> items

Contents: The collection includes correspondence with her family, neighbors, friends, and associates. Among the friends are some who were famous, such as the painter Max Ernst (with whom she was intimately acquainted) and the stage designer Caspar Neher. Some are both friends and associates, for example David Drew, with whom she collected information for a biography of Weill. Some of the letters represent responses to her requests for such information. Although there are a few letters and postcards dating from the 1920's and 1930's, most of the correspondence dates from the years following Weill's death. Major correspondents, other than those already mentioned, include: Hesper Anderson, Mary Daniel, George Davis, Helen Davis, Trudi Gill, Dag Hammarskjöld, Vivian Liff and George Stuart, Maria Hubek (her sister), Anna Krebs, Ted Mitchell, Paul Moor, Ann Ronell, Leah Salisbury, Ronald Sanders, Richard Siemanowski, Lys Symonette, Robert Vambery, Gottfried Wagner, and Helene Weigel. (For her correspondence with Bertolt Brecht and Elisabeth Hauptmann, see Series 30, box 1, folder 2.)

For Lenya's correspondence with Weill, see Series 44; for her business correspondence, see Series 42; for her papers, see Series 35. The Yale University Music Library also holds a collection of Lenya's correspondence and other papers.

Arrangement: Alphabetical by correspondent, then chronological. Most originals stored off-site; reference photocopies available.

In English and German; some letters in German provided with transcriptions and/or English translations.

Photocopies, originals, and transcriptions.

From the Lotte Lenya Estate and other sources.
