

2020 Lotte Lenya Competition Finalists

GAN-YA BEN-GURAKSELROD began her musical education playing cello, piano and clarinet. After winning the 1st prize at the Hilde Zadek Competition in Vienna she was invited to join the Young Ensemble of Theater an der Wien in Vienna, Austria. Since then, Gan-ya has performed at Staatsoper Stuttgart, Théâtre du Capitole, Deutsche Oper Berlin, the Neue Oper Wien, Staatsoper Oldenburg, Glyndebourne Festival, Aix-en-Provence Festival, Ravinia Festival, Carnegie Hall in NYC, the Israeli Opera and more. She also sings the Soprano solo part in “The World of Hans Zimmer – a Symphonic Celebration” tour. Gan-ya is the recipient of a Lys Symonette Award in the 2018

Lotte Lenya Competition, a 2nd Prize Winner of the Güzin Gürel International Voice Competition, a recipient of numerous awards from Brooklyn Conservatory of Music, the Paul Ben-Haim Competition, the Aviv Competition (best performance of an Israeli piece), the America-Israel Cultural Foundation and the Ronen Foundation.

ANIGHYA H.D. CROCKER is a conductor, tenor, and keyboardist living in Nashville. A native Tennessean, his diverse set of talents has provided him with numerous opportunities and solidified his status as one of America's most promising young musicians. Referred to as a “musical genius” by the Tennessean, Anighya has appeared in a variety of leading roles, such as Brack Weaver in Kurt Weill's Down in the Valley, The Governor in Leonard Bernstein's Candide, and Henry Crawford in Jonathan Dove's Mansfield Park, to name a few. Some of Anighya's awards include 1st place in the Orpheus Vocal Competition (2016), Finalist in the Vann Vocal Institute's National Voice Competition, and winning the Delene Laubenheim McClure Memorial Prize in Opera. As a conductor, Anighya is equally active. He currently serves as the director of the Willow Oak Chorale and Orchestra in his native Springfield TN, where he also serves as the Minister of Music at Ebenezer Baptist Church. Upcoming engagements for Anighya include a solo recital, entitled “Songs of my Soul”, scheduled for the summer of 2020 in Nashville and a Carnegie Hall debut conducting the Schubert Mass in G, presented by MidAmerica Productions on June 5, 2021. In his free time, Anighya enjoys playing jazz and being outdoors. Any day he can get away from a podium or the crook of a piano and find himself on a creek bank is a very good day.
