LOTTE LENYA COMPETITION
Thursday, November 12, 1998 12:30 p.m.

About the Competition

The Lotte Lenya Singing Competition has been established by the Kurt Weill Foundation for Music in honor of Kurt Weill’s wife and foremost interpreter on the occasion of the centenary of her birth. The competition fosters excellence in the performance of music for the theater, in its broadest sense, including opera, operetta, and the American musical theater. While vocal technique and beauty of the vocal instrument will be relevant, criteria for adjudication will also include interpretation, acting, idiomatic performance practice, and stage presence. The competition is open to all students at the University of Rochester. Each contestant has prepared four selections, including one from the operatic repertoire, a selection from the American musical theater, and two pieces by Weill; at least one selection must be in German. Cash awards will total $5,000, and the winner(s) will be featured in a recital on Saturday, November 14, at 2 p.m. in Kilbourn Hall.

Judges for the Competition

Teresa Stratas is the foremost operatic performer of her generation. In a career spanning four decades, she has sung more than 50 roles, in six languages, at virtually every major opera house in the world. She has made more than two dozen opera films, won three Grammy awards, an Emmy, a Gemini, a Drama Desk Award, a Tony nomination, and an Academy Award citation. After hearing Stratas sing Jenny in Mahagonny at the Met, Lenya declared her Weill’s “dream Jenny”: “Teresa, here is my crown. I give it to you now. You are the one, so you carry on.” Stratas has recorded Die sieben Todsünden, The Unknown Kurt Weill, and Stratas Sings Weill.

Julius Rudel emigrated from his native Austria in 1938, made his debut with City Opera in 1944, and became its Director in 1957, serving in that capacity until 1979. He has championed Weill’s music for four decades, producing and conducting at City Opera Street Scene, Lost in the Stars, Die Dreigroschenoper, and Silverlake. He has recorded Lost in the Stars as well as the Second Symphony, and he has agreed to conduct the American premiere of Die Bürgschaft at the Spoleto Festival in Charleston next May. He served as musical director of the Broadway Threepenny Opera starring Sting and serves on the Board of Trustees of the Kurt Weill Foundation for Music.

Mark Cuddy is Artistic Director of Geva Theatre in Rochester. During his four seasons in that post, he has initiated collaborations with both the Rochester Philharmonic and the Garth Fagan Dancers. At the Sacramento Theatre Company, he produced 65 plays and directed 22 productions. In 1995 he was named “Professional Artist of the Year” by the California Educational Theatre Association. He also served as producing director of the Idaho Shakespeare Festival and worked on the directorial staff of the Denver Center Theater Company. His directorial experience has ranged from Sophocles to Shepard. Geva’s 1998-99 season will climax with My Fair Lady.
